WHEREAS, the City of Elk Grove purchased the property and facility at 8978 Elk Grove Boulevard, also known as the Courthouse, in June 2005, and subsequently leased it to Teen Center USA (“Lessee”), a California nonprofit religious corporation, beginning August 1, 2006; and

WHEREAS, Lessee continued to lease the Courthouse facility under annual lease agreements that were regularly renewed, the most recent of which has a term ending on September 30, 2022; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of both the current and proposed lease, Lessee is responsible for complying with relevant provisions of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 570, including documenting that activities undertaken in the Courthouse facility meet the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) national objective of primarily benefitting low-income persons; and

WHEREAS, staff has proposed a new lease with Lessee that has a one-year term, during which staff can verify that Lessee remains eligible to occupy the facility under the requirements associated with CDBG funding; and
