Always Wear an Approved Bicycle Helmet
A bicycle helmet should sit low on the forehead just above the eyebrows. It should fit snugly and the two side plastic pieces on the straps should fit just under the ears. The buckle should be just under the chin, with one finger’s width of space between the strap and chin. The helmet must always be buckled while riding. The helmet should not move more than \( \frac{1}{3} \) inch in any direction.

Know and Follow the Rules of the Road
Know and follow the rules of the road contained within the California Vehicle Code (CVC). Vehicle Code handbooks can be obtained through your local Department of Motor Vehicles Office or Automobile Club. Remember, bicyclists must obey the same laws as drivers of motor vehicles.

Ride with the Flow of Traffic
Always follow lane markings and use appropriate hand signals. Ride single-file when in heavily congested areas.

Avoid Riding at Night
If it becomes necessary to do so, wear light-colored or reflective clothing. Make sure your bicycle is properly equipped with reflectors and a front light, if possible.

Be Alert While Riding
Watch for cars, pedestrians, and hazards in the roadway like potholes, drain grates, etc. Don’t assume other people will yield to you. Be courteous and give the right-of-way to other bicyclists and pedestrians.

When Using a Crosswalk
Walk Your Bike
Always look left, right, then left again—even when the light gives you the right-of-way.
