Dispatchers for Public Service Honored This Week

This week is National Public Safety Telecommunicator's Week, recognizing public safety dispatchers who are often the first in line in emergency service response. On April 10, dispatcher Katie Miller was honored as the Elk Grove Police Department's Dispatcher of the Year. She was recognized at the Public Safety Telecommunicators' annual awards banquet for the excellent service she provides the Elk Grove community.

Tree Planting

In observance of Arbor Day, the City is planting two oak trees and a crepe myrtle tree at the northeast corner of Bond and Elk Grove-Florin. These new trees will replace the previous oak tree that was removed due to deteriorating conditions.

I remain available to answer any questions regarding this report.
