

STATE

WOULD HELP

Senate Bill 266 Public Workshop
Fighting Street Racing
Tuesday, April 10
6:00 p.m., Florin High School

Elk Grove's aggressive drive to end the plague of street racing is moving forward as the state Legislature considers a bill to fight it. Senate Bill 266 by Senator Darrell Steinberg would allow cities and counties to declare vehicles involved in street racing as nuisances – and requiring their drivers to forfeit them. The carefully crafted bill would allow an innocent registered owner to claim the vehicle – a smart balance between getting reckless and aggressive street racers off the streets without penalizing innocent owners.
