STATEMENT ON CLOSURE OF APPLE COMPUTERS MANUFACTURING DIVISION

City Manager John Danielson today released the following statement regarding the closing of Apple Computer's manufacturing operation in Elk Grove:

"We regret to hear that Apple Computers is closing the manufacturing arm of their facility in Elk Grove. However, we are grateful to hear that other functions of their operation will remain in the City.

As always, Elk Grove remains committed to expanding its job base and will continue to engage in economic development strategies to develop a diversified local economy."
