Assistant City Manager to Leave City of Elk Grove

Elk Grove, CA – Elk Grove City Manager Laura S. Gill today announced that Patrick Blacklock, who has served as the City's Assistant City Manager since October 2008, has been appointed as the County Administrator for Yolo County. Blacklock will assume his new duties on January 4, 2010.

"Pat has served the city well," Gill said. "I appreciate all of the excellent work Pat has performed on behalf of the City, particularly his work on the Sphere of Influence, the Habitat Conservation Plan, and the implementation of the Development Services Assessment Report. We will miss him, and wish him the best in his new position."

As Assistant City Manager, Blacklock is responsible for the oversight of the Public Works, Planning, and Building Departments. He has also acted as a the point person for the City's economic development efforts.

Blacklock's last day with the City is December 18. Gill plans to name an interim within the next two weeks.
