

Press Release

Christine Brainerd
City of Elk Grove Public Information Officer
916.478.3632 (Office)
916.479.5337 (Cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 4, 2010

Old Town First Friday Series Starts May 7

Elk Grove, CA – Old Town Elk Grove will come alive this Friday night, as area businesses are kicking off a series of Old Town First Friday events.

Held the first Friday of every month from 5 to 9 p.m., the free events will take place in Old Town Elk Grove on Elk Grove Blvd. between Elk Grove Florin Road and Waterman Road. Old Town First Friday celebrations will offer musical entertainment, art displays, face painting, shopping, dining and more.

Various businesses in Old Town will be staying open late and hosting special activities on May 7.

To date, the following businesses are participating:

The Secret Garden, Somewhere in Time, Boba Tea & Gifts, Bjennin Boutique, Embellish, Gifts & Home Décor, Elk Grove Fine Arts Center, Homestead, Pomegranate Gifts & more, Dream Girls, Jillie Jacks, The Retro Sole, Zackary Furniture & Home Décor, Mango Fix, eCurb Realty, Island Wear, Lowry Music, The Red Door Antiques, It's a Rack Consignment, Elk Grove Psychic, Camarillo Salon, Old Town Café, Youth Skills Center Thrift Store, Swank, All About You Salon & Spa, Happy Gardens, Paula Maita & Co. and Brickhouse Restaurant & Lounge.

For more information contact Julie Quattrin at 916.804.2915 or fairytalesbyjulie@yahoo.com.

#