News and Updates

Live Webcast of Friday's State of the City Address

This Friday, Mayor Sophia Scherman will deliver the 2010 State of the City address at a luncheon hosted by the Chamber of Commerce at Valley Hi Country Club. But if you can't make the event, you can still catch the speech from your computer. The City of Elk Grove will be offering a free live webcast of the Mayor's speech on the City's website, thanks to support from Frontier Communications. The speech will begin at approximately noon on Friday March 26, and can be viewed live at www.elkgrovecity.org.

Sexual Assault Prevention Seminar set for Tuesday

The Elk Grove Police Department and Women Escaping a Violent Environment (W.E.A.V.E) are hosting a seminar to increase awareness in the Elk Grove community about issues related to sexual assaults. The seminar will provide information about preventing assaults, the dangers of "sexting," and safe computer usage for children. (3/23, Council Chambers; 6 p.m.)

City to Host Public Meetings about Utility User Tax

The City of Elk Grove will hold three public outreach meetings to discuss the Utility User Tax (UUT), which is currently included on gas, electricity, sewer and telephone services bills. The meetings will discuss the purpose of the UUT, the need to modernize the language to reflect technological advances and changes in state and federal law, possible expansion of the policy as well as a possible reduction of the rate.
