News and Updates

Have 'Coffee with a Cop' This Friday

This Friday, grab a cup of joe and meet one-on-one with Elk Grove police officers about safety issues in your neighborhood. Officers from the Elk Grove Police Department's Problem Oriented Policing Unit will be hosting their second "Coffee with a Cop" event at It's a Grind Coffee House as part of a unique effort to build relationships with the community. (9385 Elk Grove Blvd. and 9620 Bruceville Rd. 5/14, 7 a.m. to 9 a.m.).

"Fantastic Fridays" Shop Local Program Begins May 14

More than 40 local businesses are teaming up for a new ongoing shop local program called Fantastic Fridays, offering Elk Grove shoppers new incentives to spend locally and keep sales tax dollars in Elk Grove. On the second weekend of every month, businesses throughout Elk Grove will be offering special discounts and hosting activities to encourage local spending. The first Fantastic Fridays program begins Friday, May 14. For details, visit www.shopelkgrovecity.com.

Elk Grove Arts Committee Finishes Coloring Book with Flying Colors

A free Elk Grove coloring book is now available for Elk Grove’s youngest residents. The City of Elk Grove Arts Committee has finished the first community coloring book, made up of 23 winning entries featuring popular scenes in Elk Grove from middle and high school students. Hard copies of the coloring book can be picked up at City Hall or by calling 916.478.2201. The coloring book can also be downloaded at this link: <http://www.elkgrovecity.org/arts/colorful/images/coloring-book.pdf>.
