News and Updates

Elk Grove Employment Fair this Wednesday

Assemblymember Joan Buchanan is hosting an employment fair at Elk Grove Regional Park this Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Discover job opportunities in the area and learn more about job training resources and Unemployment Insurance. Representatives from the City of Elk Grove and Elk Grove Police Department will be available to discuss employment opportunities. For more information, call 916-319-2015 or visit <http://asmdc.org/members/a15/>. The Pavilion at Elk Grove Regional Park, 9950 Elk Grove Florin Road.

National Night Out is Tomorrow!

Nearly 40 Elk Grove communities are teaming up with the Elk Grove Police Department this Tuesday for the 27th annual National Night Out celebration. From 5:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., residents are encouraged to spend the evening outside with neighbors and police at one of the planned block parties. National Night Out is designed to heighten crime prevention awareness, strengthen neighborhood spirit, and police-community partnerships. For more information, contact Denise Costello at 916-478-8117 or David Feinberg at 916-478-8130.

Going Above and Beyond Deserves Recognition

Do you know a business, organization or individual who goes “Above and Beyond” for individuals with disabilities in Elk Grove? If so, take a moment to nominate them for the City of Elk Grove Disability Advisory Committee’s Accessibility Award. The Committee will review applications received and recognize honorees during Disability Awareness Month in October. Working together, we can help improve the quality of life for everyone in Elk Grove. Applications are available at www.elkgrovecity.org/dac or by contacting the City’s ADA Coordinator at 478-2249. The nomination period ends Thursday, September 9th.
