News and Updates

City Introduces Photo News Gallery on Website

The City of Elk Grove is continuing to find new ways to inform residential and business communities about important City of Elk Grove news and information. We're introducing a photo news gallery on the City website that will feature Elk Grove news in photos. The gallery is available for the news media and general public, and will be updated regularly. www.elkgrovecity.org/gallery

City Manager's Contract on City Website

In the spirit of transparency and full disclosure, Elk Grove City Manager Laura S. Gill has made her employment contract available on the City of Elk Grove website. The City of Elk Grove is committed to fiduciary responsibility and to providing the public with access to compensation information in a timely manner. For more information, visit: www.elkgrovecity.org/city-manager.

Calling all Artists!

The City of Elk Grove is seeking public art for the Police Department building at City Hall (8400 Laguna Palms Way). Artists of all types are invited to submit current, original works, including, but not limited to stained glass, film, two or three dimensional art, graphic design, photography, collage, painting, installation, drawing, sculpture, performance, video, and sound or other medium that would be considered public art by the artist and the City of Elk Grove Committee for the Arts.
