- Group reviewed topics for the next videos and decided which one to do next. Decided that instead of prom topic to do "Summer Fun"
- Amanda suggested telling Vice Principals at local schools about videos and getting them shown in classes.
- After discussing the issue of more organized directors, the 27th was set as a tentative date for filming

5.2 Three-Year Action Plan update-discuss presentation to Council in May

- The set date to present was set on the 26th but there was a need to change it due to graduations. New date was set to May 12th

- It was suggested that the youth commission share information on the GABY Grant video and budget and also on the final report. Also give n overview on what is coming with the resource center.
- Jaime reminded the members that the presentation should be brief and not to go into detail. However make sure that a good overview of what we have done an what steps we are on in the three year action plan

5.3 Regional Youth Resource Center- follow up discussion

- Amanda suggested all members brainstorm some non-profit centers to form a coalition, taking an example from E-Merge. Also posting a list of teen friendly place on a website that agree to serve as a resource center for teens.
- It was also said that poster boards or tables should be set up in these places
- Each member was given a job to call specific places which included: SAVA, PAL, Wackford Center, Public Libraries, Young Life, and get them involved in the process.
- An out line for the written process included: a goal, an agreement to help promote cause, willing to act as a resource for teens.

PUBLIC COMMENT: Esther Dixon asked if replacements for the senior commissioners were being found and maybe this should be mentioned at the Council Meeting.
